Rocky Chavez is the Undersecretary of California Department of Veterans Affairs. He was born in Los Angeles, California and attended Torrance High School. He holds a bachelor's degree from California State University Chico and is a graduate of the Marine Corps Command and Staff College, the Armed Forces Staff College and the Air War College. He served in the U.S. Marine Corps from 1974 to 2001 where he rose to assistant chief of staff for logistics at Camp Pendleton (1999-2001) and chief of staff 4th Marine Division (1998). Work experience includes; Oceanside city councilman (2002-2009) and chief education officer at the School of Business and Technology Charter High School in Oceanside, California 2001-2007). Mr. Chavez will give us an overview of today's CDVA.

Welcome to the Fifth Annual Veterans and Their Families Resource Faire. The San Jose Veterans Center and the San Jose Veterans Center Advisory Council has worked vigorously in preparing this day especially for you and your families.

As a veteran you have served and today we let you know just how much you are appreciated. Everything comes together today to express both gratitude, pride and a genuine desire for each and every veteran to secure and enjoy all of his/her earned benefits.

Look around and enjoy the various activities and talk to the representatives of veteran service organizations and others that are here to help. The representatives will guide you and will help you explore Veterans Benefits and other resources that are available to you. Lastly, a very special thank you to all of the service providers that are with us today, you have made this event possible.
