“SERVING VETERANS TODAY”

Saturday April 18, 2009

Dr. Francisco Q. Ponce

Welcome to the Fourth Annual Veterans and Their Families Resource Faire. The San Jose Veterans Center and the San Jose Veterans Center Advisory Council has worked vigorously in preparing this day for you and your families.

As a veteran you have served and today we let you know just how much you are appreciated. Everything comes together today to express both gratitude, pride and a genuine desire for each and every veteran to enjoy all of his/her benefits. Look around and enjoy the various activities and talk to the representatives of veteran service organizations and others that came here to help. The representatives will guide you and will help you explore Veterans Benefits and other avenues that are available to you.

Dr. Francisco Q. Ponce will address the gathering and discuss briefly what soldiers face in terms of Anxiety Disorders, Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) and the associated Stressors. On behalf of the Director of the San Jose Veterans Center, Ms Juanita Morales-Euresti, we salute you for your service and we thank you for adding significance to this event by your presence.
